

Michigan FLING

Michigan had its first FLING in the metro Detroit area. Five Food & Culinary Professional members met at Melange Bistro Wine Bar in Ann Arbor, Michigan. All it took was an email out to the listserv and we were off and running! A few emails later, we had the location, time and date set for Friday, March 2nd at 6:30 p.m.

Melange provided us with a private eating area that gave us a great opportunity to talk, eat and drink all while listening to some relaxing Jazz music. Our server, Brandon, was fantastic with amazing knowledge of the menu. Before our food arrived, we had a visit from the Executive Chef John Weiszer. He was an interesting guy with a personal interest in food technology. In order to get a taste of the European-Asian culture fusion, we decided to order many items and share. We started with the Scoozie flatbread, The River Rock strip steak and Risotto of Wild Mushrooms. Our entrees were Sea Bass with crispy rice cake, Chicken Parasol Supreme and Lamb Shank. For dessert, we shared the Tiramisu, White Chocolate Mousse and Chocolate Torte. Before and during our meal, we shared many bottles of Joel Cott Cabernet Sauvignon Blend No. 815 2005.

The food and company was very enjoyable! Michigan has a fabulous group of “foodies” with many different areas of expertise. We plan on meeting up again in a few months for another food adventure.
