Terms and Conditions – General Information

What Your Program Cost Includes: Review the program description and day-by-day itinerary to be sure you know what's included in the 'Land Only' program cost, and what's not. Included are all events, activities, visits, cooking classes, tastings, guiding, transfers within Argentina, eight nights lodging with full buffet breakfast, all lunches with wines and two dinners, as described in the 'day-by-day' description page. Not included: are: reciprocity tax for the First-Time American Visitors at the International Airport in Buenos Aires (approximately, USD $131) and personal costs or expenses such as laundry, postage, phone calls, hotel bills for non-program beverages or other hotel services ordered. Airfare or land travel to and from Buenos Aires are not included.

Insurance: We strongly advise you to purchase trip cancellation insurance to prevent needless loss due to an accident, illness, or other unforeseen events or circumstances involving you, a family member, traveling companion, his/her family member, etc., causing you to cancel prior to departure or leave the program early. Depending on your specific needs, 'A Cooks Tour' offers, a full range of insurance policies for this trip. Call David Iverson at 425-557-9905 or Denine Hughes at 206-343-7000 for insurance options.

In order to cover a pre-existing condition, your insurance coverage must be purchased within 10 days of making a deposit for this trip.

Cancellations and Refunds: Cancellations must be received via letter or email. Cancellation fees are as follows: 1) cancellations received prior to January 1, 2011 will forfeit $500 of payments to date per person; 2) cancellations received after January 1 or later will receive no refund.

About the Program Cost: The program cost is based on the dollar/peso rate of exchange at the time of costing, 9 months prior to the program, and is subject to change in the event of a rate of exchange change increase exceeding 5%. Enrollees will be duly advised about such a change in the program cost, should it be necessary.

Arrivals and Departures: The program begins and ends at the place and times stated on the program itinerary page and in confirmation materials that will be mailed to you. In the event a participant is early or late at the arrival point and/or early or late leaving at the end of the program, she/he is responsible for arranging her/his own transfers and for any cost or expense thereof.

Non-refundable tickets and reservations: 'A Cooks Tour' does not recommend the purchase of non-refundable airline tickets, and is not responsible for expenses incurred by participants who book such tickets or make pre-paid hotel or other non-refundable reservations, until the minimum enrollment for the program has been reached. Should you be considering making such reservations nonetheless, be sure to check with our office as to the enrollment status of the program to see if it has reached the minimum number (15) for operation.

Program Minimum Size and Cancellation: 'A Cooks Tour' reserves the right to cancel the program in the event that enrollment does not reach the budgeted minimum of 15 participants. In the event of cancellation, those enrolled may receive a refund up to the full program cost, however if cancellation comes shortly before the program start date and is caused by acts or occurrences beyond our control, and advance deposits made to program vendors/providers cannot be refunded to us, then the refund of the program cost to participants will be affected accordingly.

Itinerary Changes: Program vendors/providers in Argentina may change personnel, prices, policies, ownership, location or the way they do business. We constantly monitor such events, and reserve the right to make any necessary changes to the itinerary as a result, either before or during the program. Should it become necessary or advisable for the comfort or well-being of participants, or upon damage, loss, accident, delay or irregularity of any vehicle, equipment or machinery, or in transporting or lodging the participants or for any reason whatsoever to alter the itinerary or arrangements, such alterations or changes may be made without prior notice or liability or penalty to 'A Cooks Tour'.

Travel Documents: US and Canadian citizens are required to have a valid passport for travel to and within Argentina. Other nationalities may require a visa to enter Argentina. It is each participant's sole responsibility to be in possession of valid travel documents, including passport, required for leaving the USA, entering and leaving Argentina, and re-entering the USA. (Note that the US Passport Office recommends that passports be valid for at least 6 months beyond the intended return to the USA.) No refund of the program cost will be made, nor will any expense incurred by a participant due to forgotten, lost, invalid or expired travel documents before or during the program be reimbursed by 'A Cooks Tour'.

Limitations of Liability: 'A Cooks Tour' neither accepts nor assumes liability or responsibility of any kind or nature for any fault, defaults, errors, omissions or negligence of any person, school, association, company or other type of service provider used in connection with the delivery of the program; nor for any loss, injury or damage to person or property connected with accommodations, transportation or other types of services. "A Cooks Tour" is not responsible, directly or indirectly, for cancellations, delays, amendments, loss or additional costs incurred by participants due to acts of nature, civil unrest or disturbances, strikes, work stoppages, fire or arson, thefts or inclement weather.
