4. All entries, including recipes and any photographs, shall be the property of the National Pork Board and will not be returned. Submission of entry grants the National Pork Board and each of their affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents the right to publish, use, adapt, edit and/or modify such entry in any way, in any and all media, without limitation as regards duration, frequency or territory, and without consideration (i.e., payment of a fee) to the entrant. Submission of an entry further constitutes the entrant’s irrevocable waiver of any moral rights and assignment and transfer to the National Pork Board of any and all rights, title, and interest in and to the entry, including, without limitation, all copyrights and other intellectual property rights. Entries must be the original work of the entrant, may not have won previous awards, may not have been published previously, must not infringe third party rights, and must be suitable for publication (i.e., not obscene or indecent). Winners and entrants waive all rights and remedies at law or in equity for any claim they may have relating to this promotion.

5. Ten finalists will be selected by a judging panel appointed at the sole discretion of the National Pork Board. Entries will be judged on the following criteria, weighted evenly: versatility, innovative use of pork, and adherence to entry criteria. The finalists will be selected on or about July 8, 2020. Finalist entries will be judged by FCP-selected judges on or about July 13, 2020, based on the following criteria, evenly weighted: taste/texture; availability of ingredients; ease of preparation; appearance; appeal to the general public. Decisions of the judges regarding all aspects of the Contest and its administration are final.

6. Prizes: One Grand prize winner will be selected and, subject to satisfaction of eligibility requirements and signature of an affidavit of eligibility, publicity release and general release, will receive a Weber pellet grill (retail value $999). Four runners up will receive a Weber connects thermometer (retail value $129.99). Winners will be notified on or about July 16, 2020, and prizes will be awarded on or about September 1, 2020. All prizes will be awarded according to these rules. All taxes relating to the prizes will be the responsibility of the winners. All winners will have the opportunity to participate in a webinar, scheduled for July 30, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. Central.
7. Finalists must provide positive identification specified by the National Pork Board to claim their prize and will be required to sign and return an affidavit of eligibility, publicity release and general release. Finalists will be required to sign and return these documents within 10 days of notification or the prize will be forfeited and awarded to an alternate winner. Acceptance of a prize constitutes the winners’ agreement to release and hold harmless the National Pork Board and each of their affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents from and against any injuries, losses or damages related in any way to their participation in this promotion and/or acceptance and/or use of a prize, including the National Pork Board’s reliance upon their compliance with these rules, and their agreement that the National Pork Board may use his or her name, voice, likeness and/or biographical data for advertising and promotional purposes in any and all media without additional compensation or restriction as to the frequency, territory or duration of such use.

8. This contest is open only to residents of the continental United States, 21 years of age or older. The National Pork Board and each of their affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents licensed retailers, wholesalers and the judging panel as well as their immediate families and/or household residents are not eligible to participate. The contest shall only be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Illinois and all entrants irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of the state and federal courts of Illinois over them for such purposes. This contest is void where prohibited.
